

X-STEM™ 2018

PRESENTED BY:

Join us at X-STEM, an Extreme STEM symposium for middle and high school students featuring interactive presentations by the nation's top innovators.

- See where “STEM Can Take You” with stories of inspiration
- Participate in hands-on workshops
- Q/A with speakers
- Featuring STEM superstars from Pixar, NASA, and The Weather Channel and more

Thursday, April 5th from 9:30am-3pm
Walter E. Washington Convention Center

Students will not want to miss this exclusive group of visionaries who aim to empower and inspire them about careers in STEM.

*Advance registration is required to attend.
The cost to attend is $20/person.*
