Emergency Information:

SECURITY:

- See Something, Say Something. If you are concerned with a security matter, please notify a staff member wearing a light blue T-Shirt immediately.
- Convention Center security, labeled in yellow jackets, will be throughout the buildings and at the building entrances.

FIRST AID:

- For minor emergencies, please take the sick or injured person to a medical station in Hall A, Hall D or room 140A.
- For major emergencies, please send someone to the nearest Information Booth or contact a staff member wearing a light blue Festival tee shirt. Each staff member has a radio to connect them to emergency personnel.
- If a life-threatening emergency or a police emergency arises and you cannot quickly reach a staff member with radio, then dial 202-249-3333 on your cell phone. All incidents should be reported to an Information Booth immediately.

LOST CHILD:

- Should you find a lost child, or lose a child, please escort the child/parent to the nearest Information Booth in Halls A, C, D, and E. These booths act as our safety hubs.
- Afterwards, all lost children should be escorted to room 140A where attempts to contact family will be made. EXPO Maps will be available onsite that identify the Info Booth Locations.

LOST & FOUND:

- Please bring lost items to the Information Booth in Hall A.
